City of St. Augusta
Important Information Regarding Property Assessments

This may affect your 2024 property Taxes

The Board of Appeal and Equalization for the City of St. Augusta will meet on Tuesday, April 4 at 5:30pm at the St. Augusta City Hall, 1914 250th Street, St. Augusta, MN 56301. The purpose of this meeting is to determine whether property in the jurisdiction has been properly values and classified by the assessor. If you believe the value or classification of your property is incorrect, please contact your assessor's office to discuss your concerns. If you disagree with the valuation or classification after discussing it with your assessor, you may appear before the local Board of Appeal and Equalization. The board will review your assessment and may make corrections as needed. Generally, you must appeal to the local board before appealing to the county board of appeal and equalization.

Dear Local Board of Appeal,

I feel that the appraisal value of Scott Klein's house, Parcel ID 81.43279.0122, is too high. The house was built over 30 years ago and everything in the house is original. The interior is in poor condition. Scott is 100% disabled.

Sincerely,

Richard Klein
